Dear Friends:

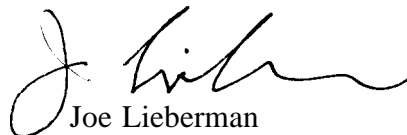

The person you choose to represent you in Connecticut's General Assembly can have a big impact on the quality of your family's life and the future of your community. Your State Representative will be casting votes on measures affecting the economy, education, transportation, environment and health care, to name a few of the priorities on the agenda next year.

That makes this year's race more than a contest between personalities or political parties. It comes down to basic values, like responsibility, opportunity and community, and who best can bring those values to bear on the issues affecting you, your neighborhood and our state. Dr. Sheenu Srinivasan, who has spent more than thirty years as an integral member of Glastonbury's social and political community, represents just these values.

I wholeheartedly endorse Sheenu in his candidacy here in the 31st District, and I ask each of you, as voters and as citizens, to take a good look at who is running for the General Assembly. I hope you will agree that Sheenu stands for the values you believe in, and has the experience to make a difference at the State Capitol, in your community, and throughout Connecticut.

Just as it is an honor to represent you in the United States Senate, it's my privilege to have this opportunity to speak with you on behalf of such a dedicated and talented man as Dr. Sheenu Srinivasan. I encourage you to support his candidacy this November.

Sincerely,

Joe Lieberman
